TV System: Unknown

--- Various in Unknown at Unknown Venue (Recording Generation: Unknown)(Recording Source=Unknown)
--- (Collection Reference Number: 4411)(Runtime=0min)(Video Quality=)(Sound Quality=)

200 Cadillacs is an hour-long documentary on the subject of the Elvis Presley's habit of giving away cars to friends--and sometimes complete strangers. Interview subjects (most of them recipients of automotive largesse) include some names familiar to die-hard Presley-watchers: posse member Sonny West, girlfriend Linda Thompson, drummer D.J. Fontana, and many others. There are some good anecdotes offered in the memories, especially stories involving The King handing out Cadillacs to people he happened to see on a dealership lot. But the repetitive observations (Elvis really, really liked giving gifts) and the flat approach make the film feel longer than it is, and a collection of new rock songs--no Elvis music--amounts to padding on the soundtrack.

Item Title: Behind The Image Vol 1

TV System: Unknown

--- Various in Various at Various (Recording Generation: Unknown)(Recording Source=Unknown)
--- (Collection Reference Number: 4422)(Runtime=0min)(Video Quality=)(Sound Quality=)

The DVD impresses with unbelievable and sensational 8mm movies presenting Elvis Presley on stage at different locations, e.g. in Los Angeles, California at the Forum Inglewood Nov. 14, 1970 with an afternoon show and an evening show. In the evening Elvis wears the fabulous 'Fringe Suit', a jumpsuit with very long fringes. This suit has been worn by Elvis only a very few times. It has been on one hand very extravagant, but on the other hand very inexpedient, because during the show the fringes wrapped around Elvis and constricted his appearance. You will find only a handful of photos of this jumpsuit and no one had ever thought about 8mm shots before the release of 'Elvis Behind The Image Vol. 1'.

Moreover you can see a very dynamic Elvis on stage in San Diego, California Nov. 15, 1970 wearing the 'I Got Lucky – Suit' at the Sports Arena. Wonderful shots of different appearances in Las Vegas, Nevada at the International Hotel from January and February 1971 complete the 8mm concert movies.

Nevertheless, this super rare 8mm concert footage is not the ultimate sensation of this DVD, but the 8mm material, which shows us the 'man behind the image', the private citizen Elvis and his residences and the interior of his houses in California. Before this DVD was released this had been a black hole in Elvis' life – totally unknown and unexplored.

These fantastic 8mm footages complete the remarkable and interesting documentary. In the documentary close friends of Elvis, e.g. Kathy Westmoreland (soprano of Elvis' orchestra) or John Wilkinson (rhythm guitar player of Elvis' orchestra), talk about Elvis and give impressive background information.

Item Title: Behind The Image Vol 2

TV System: Unknown

--- Various in Various at Various (Recording Generation: Unknown)(Recording Source=Unknown)
--- (Collection Reference Number: 4423)(Runtime=0min)(Video Quality=)(Sound Quality=)

Behind The Image Volume 2 starts with an unusual and more than impressive introduction with an animated Elvis, dancing and doing some karate moves to a digderidoo (one of the oldest instruments on earth). The shots we see are taken from the bonus 8mm material and are unseen to these eyes.

Those interviewed include - Cynthia Pepper, who played the character of "Midge Riley" in "Kissin' Cousins", Ed Hill of the Stamps Quartet who talks about Elvis as a dear friend who never forgot where he came from. (This part is packed with footage including the CBS announcement of Elvis' passing and an emotional explanation of JD Sumner saying that (in his opinion), "there was no greater man next to Jesus than Elvis" and Ed Enoch, which is the longest of the three interviews lasting 45 minutes. Like Ed Hill, Ed Enoch talks about how it was to work with Elvis on stage. Enoch explains, that he came – just like Ed Hill – from the gospel scene, before he met Elvis for the first time in fall 1970 and talks about the mood at the rehearsals with Elvis and more about the work on stage.

Memory records and Dragon heart productions are proud to announce this new commemorative Elvis birthday edition DVD which features Elvis Presley concerts from 1974 to 1977. All concert footage are 8 mm fan footage and every effort has been made to achieve optimum picture and sound quality. However, priority has been given to historical content. This DVD will sure bring back some of the old memories for those who attended these outstanding concerts and for those that weren't there, you will be pleased to view these wonderful concerts. There is a total of 6 concerts which Elvis is wearing a different jumpsuit for each show like the "King of Spades", "Blue gypsy" and others. You will see Elvis at his best on stage, having fun with the audience, singing some rare songs and mostly doing the "gay" version of "Are you lonesome tonight". The performances are from "Omaha nebraska July 1, 1974", "Las Vegas Nevada august 19, 1974 opening show", "Las vegas Nevada august 18, 1975 opening show", "Las Vegas Nevada august 19, 1975 dinner show", "Pittsburgh Penn. December 31, 1976", "Kansas city, MI june 18, 1977". This is a quality video. Some of the performances are cut short but many are not and all of them are priceless!
